

ITSH Events – Fall 2020

All events will be scheduled: Mondays 13:00-15:00 on the ITSH Microsoft Team

28 Sept (W3) – Skills Session

Konrad Lawson – Introduction to Regular Expressions for Advanced Text Search

5 Oct (W4) – Reading Group

Angus Waugh – Tears of Rangi: Experiments Across Worlds by Anne Salmond

12 Oct (W5) – Skills Session

Konrad Lawson – Visualising Social Networks with Cytoscape

23 Oct (W6 - Friday) – Workshop

“Tourism and Sexuality in West Germany”
Craig Griffiths (Manchester Metrop.),
Kristoff Kerl (Copenhagen), Nikolaos
Papadogiannis (Bangor) – will be on Zoom

26 Oct (W7) – Reading Group

Sarah Easterby-Smith – Provincialising Global History: Money, Ideas, and Things in the Languedoc, 1680-1830 by James Livesey

2 Nov (W8) – Manuscript Workshop

Claudia Kreklau – Making Modern Eating –
“Culinary Spirit of the Age”

9 Nov (W9) – Project Team Report

Kate Ferris and team – Everyday Dictatorship

16 Nov (W10) – Reading Group

Charmaine Lam – Worldmaking after Empire: The Rise and Fall of Self-Determination by Adom Getachew

23 Nov (W11) – Manuscript Workshop

Riccardo Bavaj, Bernhard Struck and Konrad Lawson – Introduction to Doing Spatial History

30 Nov (W12) – Research Lecture

Darragh Gannon “Mapping the ‘two geographies’ of Global History: Ireland and the World, 1919-1923

7 Dec (W13) – Manuscript Workshop

Zhentian Xie – draft chapter from PhD dissertation “Through Pots and Pans: Culinary and Cultural Bonds between China and Japan, 1868-1949”

Note: If you are not on the ITSH mailing list and wish to attend one of our events, or if you are unable to gain access to the Microsoft Team for the institute, please get in touch with Konrad Lawson (kml8) in order to receive the readings and manuscripts before our event, and be provided access to the ITSH Team for the event.

Learn more about the ITSH at: <https://transnationalhistory.net/>